MVG Standard 1:
The institution has a clear understanding of its mission and communicates why it exists and who benefits as a result of its efforts.

A. Does the institution have a mission statement?

Basic
- The institution has a written mission statement that the governing authority, staff, and volunteers understand, remember, and can explain.

Good
- The mission statement is easily accessible (e.g., posted in the office, printed in the newsletter, and prominent in meeting materials for the governing authority), and the governing authority and staff frequently reacquaint themselves with it.

Better
- The institution reviews the mission statement every three to five years. The review may include members of the community.

B. Does the mission statement clearly express what the institution does and for whom?

Basic
- The mission defines the institution's purpose and acknowledges its public responsibility.
- It identifies the institution's audiences and reflects the institution's core values.
- The institution shares its mission in communications with the public.

Good
- The mission statement focuses on outcomes and impact, not solely activities.

Better
- The governing authority, staff, and volunteers always address the institution's mission in decision-making.
